

It is vital that people with hearing loss test telephones in the store before purchasing. That's the way I bought my last phone. I tried all the available ones in the store and the minute it did not work with my hearing and hearing aids, I left the store. This is an absolute MUST for purchasing a phone - in-store testing!